<h3>2. The Starry Night</h3>

    Artist: Vincent van Gogh
        This painting shows the view from van Gogh's asylum room window at Saint-Rémy-de-Provence. It is a powerful piece of Post-Impressionism known for its <ins>emotional honesty</ins> and bold colors. It was not well-known during his lifetime.

<h3>4. Girl with a Pearl Earring</h3>

Artist: Johannes Vermeer

Often called the "Mona Lisa of the North," this painting is a masterwork of the Dutch Golden Age. The identity of the girl is unknown, adding to the painting's mystery. It's a tronie, a study of a head and shoulders, not a formal portrait. The work was forgotten for centuries before its rediscovery.
